

Society in the Loop Event

The Foundry
17 Oval Way

Agenda

10am - Welcome and introduction

Cassie Robinson, Doteveryone

10.10 - 10.30am - Holding the paradox

Natalie Fenton from Civil Society Futures chairs conversation between Annika Small OBE (CAST), Kriti Sharma (Sage), Hetan Shah (Royal Statistical Society)

10.30 - 11.15am

Stage discussion 1: Law & Justice

Panel:

TBC, Law Centres Network
Rohan Grove, HMCTS
Sophia Adams Bhatti, Law Society
Ravi Naik, ITN Solicitors

Chaired by Anna Thomas, Future of Work Institute

11.15 - 11.30am - Coffee & Tea break

11.30 - 12.15pm

Stage discussion 2: Vulnerable consumers

Panel:

James Plunkett, Citizens Advice
Ian Hutchinson, Projects by IF
Karen Croxson, Financial Conduct Authority
Sue Daley, techUK

Chaired by Lis Costa, Behavioural Insights Team

12.15 - 1.15pm - Lunch

1.15 - 2pm

Stage discussion 3: Democracy

Panel:

Josh Cowls, Oxford Internet Institute
Sym Roe, Democracy Club
Prof. Evelyn Ruppert, Goldsmiths University Lnd
Craig Westwood, Electoral Commission

Chaired by Reema Patel, Nuffield Foundation & Ada Lovelace Institute

2pm - 2.45pm

Stage discussion 4: Poverty and Inequality

Panel:

Sophia Parker, Little Village HQ
Sophie Varlow, The Commons Platform
Mirca Madianou, Goldsmiths University Lnd
Dr. Seeta Peña Gangadharan, LSE

Chaired by Catherine Colebrook, IPPR

2.45 - 3pm - Coffee & Tea break

3pm - 3.45pm

Stage discussion 5: Human Rights

Panel:

Hannah Couchman, Liberty
Lina Dencik, Data Justice Lab
Julien Cornebise, Element AI
Matthew Johnston, ThoughtWorks

Chaired by Brittany Smith, Ethics & Society Unit, DeepMind

3.45 - 4.15pm - Discussion

A time to ask questions, raise concerns, challenge, gain deeper understanding.

4.15 - 4.35pm - Feedback

4.40 - 5pm - Closing Summary

Alix Dunn, The Engine Room; Emma Prest; Data Kind

5-7pm - Drinks